QUANTEM AVIATION SERVICES EXPANDS CARGO HANDLING WITH CATHAY PACIFIC AT BOSTON LOGAN AIRPORT

Boston, MA – April 16, 2015 – Quantem Aviation Services, LLC, (Quantem) has been awarded the air cargo handling contract for Cathay Pacific at Boston Logan Airport (BOS) effective May 2, 2015.

Cathay Pacific will begin flying from BOS, their sixth US Gateway, on May 3, 2015, and will operate non-stop service four times weekly on Boeing 777-300 ER equipment between BOS and Hong Kong (HKG). This service connects BOS and HKG directly for the first time and is a key economic engine for the Northeast region.

Quantem Aviation Services currently provides international cargo handling services in its facility located in the Airport's North Cargo complex. Karen Clausen, Vice President of Sales and Service for Quantem Aviation Services, said, "We are excited to welcome our new partner, Cathay Pacific, in our growing Boston location. I am confident that our implementation of new cargo handling technology and standard work processes will help us to deliver the high-quality service Cathay expects for their international cargo customers."
